TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTIES AND PREMISES

- (A) The Owner, using data provided by Tenant about income, household composition, and needs, which are subject to third party verification, leases to Tenant the property (called "premises" or "unit") described in the Lease Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Lease, Lease Addendum, and all Tenant Materials.
- (B) Premises must be used only as a private residence, solely for Tenant and the household members named in the Lease. The Owner may, by prior written approval, consent to the Tenant's use of the unit for legal profit-making activities subject to the Owner's policy on such activities.
- (C) Any additions to the household members named on the Lease, except for natural births, require the advance written approval of the Property Manager. Such approval will be granted only if the household provides the set of information required on an Application for Housing, if the new addition passes the Property's screening criteria, and a unit of the appropriate size is available. Permission to add personal care attendants shall not be unreasonably refused but will still require the review of the individual including a background check.
- (D) Tenant agrees to wait for the Owner's approval before allowing additional persons to move into the premises. Failure on the part of Tenant to comply with this provision is a serious violation of the material terms of the Lease, for which the Property may terminate the Lease in accordance with Section 16 of the Lease Addendum. Tenant shall supply such documentation as may be required to affect change in family composition/income.
- (E) Removal (for any reason) of the household members named on the Lease shall be reported by Tenant to the Owner in writing, within 10 days of the occurrence.

2. LEASE TERM AND AMOUNT OF RENT

The rent amount is stated in the Lease, for any initial partial month and successive full months.

- (A) Unless otherwise modified or terminated in accordance with Section 16, this Lease shall automatically be renewed for successive terms of one year.
- (B) The Owner may decline to renew the Lease only for good cause, as defined by applicable HUD regulations. Good cause shall be evidenced by a material or serious violation of the Lease, or other legally sufficient grounds. Such grounds may include, but are not limited to, repeated minor violations of the Lease that collectively demonstrate a pattern of noncompliance.

- (C) Rent stated in the Lease shall remain in effect unless adjusted by the Owner in accordance with Section 7 herein.
- (D) The total rent for the unit and Tenant's portion of the total rent shall be determined by the Owner in compliance with the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Program and, if applicable to the specific unit, the requirements of the Housing Choice Voucher Project-Based Voucher Program.
- (E) Rent is DUE and PAYABLE on the first day of each month and shall be considered delinquent after the fifth calendar day of the month. Rent may include certain utilities as described in Section 6 below and indicated in the Lease .
- (F) When the Owner makes any change in the amount of Tenant Rent, the Owner shall give written notice to Tenant. The notice shall state the new amount, and the date from which the new amount is applicable. The notice shall also state that Tenant may ask for an explanation of how the amount is computed by the Owner. If Tenant asks for an explanation, the Owner shall respond in a reasonable time.

When the Property determines that needed maintenance is not caused by normal wear and tear, Tenant shall be charged for the cost of such service, either in accordance with the Schedule of Maintenance Charges posted by the Manager or for work not listed on the schedule of Maintenance Charges based on the actual cost to the Owner for the labor and materials needed to complete the work.

The Owner shall provide written notice of the amount of any charge in addition to Tenant Rent, and when the charge is due. If the charge is made prior to the 15th day of the month, it will be due with the next month's rent payment. If the Charge is made after the 15th day of the month, it will be due with the rent due for the 1st of the second month following the charge. Failure to make complete payment on maintenance charges will result in deduction at time of move-out from the Tenant's security deposit.

If the Tenant is assessed charges for damages resulting from intentional or negligent conduct, and such charges remain unpaid beyond the deadline, then the Owner may terminate this Lease.

4. Security Deposit

- (a) Tenant agrees to pay an amount equal to one month's rent at the time of lease execution or 3 equal payments within 3 months of lease execution.

Permission may be granted, upon written request to the Owner, for an extension of the visitation period. For purposes of this part, the term "guest" means a person who is not a member of the Tenant's household on the property who is on the site or in the leased unit with the knowledge and consent of head of household or other adult household member, and whose presence has been registered with the Owner's Agent.
- (B) Use of Dwelling Unit: The primary function of the dwelling unit is residential in nature. With the prior written consent of the Owner, members of the household may engage in legal profit-making activities within the dwelling unit where the Tenant has described such proposed activity in writing to the Owner, and it has determined that the described activities are legal and shall be incidental to the primary use of the premises as a residence. Legal business activities which result in excessive foot traffic and impinge on the quiet and peaceful enjoyment of the development by other residents will not be approved. Businesses whose growth results in excessive foot traffic or a level of activity that impinges on the quiet and peaceful enjoyment of the development by other residents will be given a reasonable amount of time to relocate the business but in no event longer than thirty (30) days. No activity that increases liability for the Owner or increased insurances coverage or costs will be allowed. All information must be verified. Tenant agrees to comply with Owner requests for verification by signing releases for third-party sources, presenting documents for review, or providing other suitable forms of verification. The Owner shall give Tenant reasonable notice of what actions Tenant must take to provide the requested information and of the date by which any such action must be taken for compliance under this section. This information will be used by the Owner to decide whether the amount of the rent should be changed, and whether the dwelling size is still appropriate for Tenant's needs. 2. Eligibility may change under the following circumstances:

 - (a) A person joins the household and their addition changes the household income during the first year of occupancy.
 - (b) It is found that Tenant has misrepresented the facts upon which eligibility is based.
3. This Lease will NOT be automatically revised to permit a change of household composition resulting from a request to allow adult children (over 18) to move into the unit unless it is determined that the move is essential for the mental or physical health of the Tenant AND/OR it does not disqualify the household for the size of unit it is currently occupying.

Requests to add adult household members are subject to owner approval, screening, and occupancy standards. Exceptions may be considered in cases of reasonable accommodation or other good cause.

4. Transfer Requirements: For the Owner to run its programs in an effective manner that complies with local code and program regulations, it may be necessary under this Lease for a Tenant Household to be transferred from one unit to another appropriate unit. A transfer required by the Owner to meet policy and regulatory requirements is termed an involuntary transfer. A resident request for transfer, which is not based on a documented medical, disability-related need or household composition, is considered a voluntary transfer.
 - (a) No transfers are permitted during the initial six months of the lease term. No transfers will occur based solely on changes to household composition within the first 24 months of occupancy.
 - (b) Tenant agrees that if the Owner determines that the size or design of the dwelling unit is no longer appropriate to Tenant's needs, the Tenant must accept a new Lease for a different dwelling unit of the appropriate size or design. The Owner shall send Tenant written notice of this action and allow up to 30 days' time for the Tenant to ready the household for transfer.
 - (c) Once notified that the new unit is available, the household must move out of the old unit into the new within seven (7) calendar days. The Lease for the new unit will be effective on the day of move-in.
 - (d) The Owner may move a Tenant into another unit if it is determined necessary to rehabilitate Tenant's unit. Unless the Owner agrees to return the household to its original unit, this transfer will be one-way.
 - (e) If a Tenant makes a written request for special unit features in support of a documented disability, the Owner shall have the choice to modify Tenant's existing unit or transfer Tenant to another unit with the features requested. Requests that create an administrative or financial burden that the Owner deems unreasonable will not be granted.
 - (f) When requested, a Tenant without disabilities and who is housed in a unit with special features must transfer to a unit without such features should another Tenant with disabilities need the unit.

- (g) In the case of involuntary transfer, Tenant shall be required to move into the dwelling unit made available by the Owner. Once notified that the new unit is available, the household must move out of the old unit into the new within seven (7) calendar days.
